Question: Please provide specific comments about the course here.
Student	Detail
544844	Really boring class. I found it extremely hard to stay awake every class.
548730	This course was by far my favorite that I have taken at DePaul so far. I came into the class uninterested in the topic and honestly took it because i didn't get into the other religion credit I wanted, but I am so happy that I was placed in this one.
548795	The course was very interesting and I really enjoyed learning more about christianity and different branches etc.
561063	Dr. Myatt had powerpoint lectures that he supplemented with outside examples. It made for a very interesting religion class that was relatable. I've taken other religious courses and they sometime force their views on you and expect you to a vast amount of knowledge on the subject - Dr. Myatt was the exact opposite and made sure everyone understood the material regardless of their background.
561213	It was a required class.
561485	This was an interesting course only because of the professor. I had to take this course and knew that this was going to be a boring topic (for me specifically), but Dr. Myatt made class and its information enjoyable. He was always on time, and uplifting through out class. He understood that most of us had to take this course, and made it as enjoyable as possible. He was also very timely in responding to questions or concerns outside of class, and always happy to do so. He is now one of my favorite professors!
561664	The class was really fun and I learned a lot about the subject. Through the reading and lectures, I was introduced to new topics and also strengthened my knowledge of topics I had already heard of.
565216	None
565793	Great course, very laid back and very interesting topics
566782	Personally, I originally signed up for a Religion 110: Catholic studies, which soon turned into "the christian experience", I now realize there is an emphasis on "experience", and not so much an emphasis on a historical aspect. Up until just after midterms, I really didn't understand the point of the class. It wasn't a history class on Christianity, yet it wasn't quite a philosophy class or theology class so it was caught in an awkward in between, leaving me to question what the point of the class was.

567097	I thoroughly enjoyed taking this course. I was a bit confused why it was partially REL 110 and CTH 110 students in the class, but it worked out! I learned a lot and was challenged in my own beliefs as well. It was challenging at times in regards to other peoples opinion on certain topics not matching up with mine, but it felt good to be challenged! It ended up making me a stronger individual in my own religion of Christianity.
572862	Class size could be restricted to be a bit smaller. There were constant distractions with the walking in and out of students.

Question: Please provide specific comments about the instructor here.
Student	Detail
544844	Extremely enthusiastic about the class. He is the nicest man who wants everyone in the class to achieve an A.

548795	William Myatt is a great professor. He is always prepared for class and has a strong interest in the subject. He is fun and outgoing and really makes the class interesting and exciting. I looked forward to coming to this class every week.
550647	One of my favorite professors ever! Professor Myatt stimulated interest in his course and was extremely enthusiastic. One of the top two most polite and good-hearted professors I have ever had the privilege of meeting.
561063	He's always energetic and really keeps students attention.
561213	He presented the material in a manner that made it interesting.

565216	One of the best I've had at DePaul. Very knowledgable and approachable. Made me look forward to coming to class everyday.
565793	GREAT PROFESSOR, very knowledgeable, very easy to approach and talk to. GREAT LECTURES!!! I would definitely recommend him to other students!!
566782	Although I've been having a hard time figuring what the point of the class was, Professor Myatt is very well educated, and makes class interesting. I would love to have him as a professor again.

567097	I LOVE Dr. Myatt! He is so funny and always is keeping students engaged with his sense of humor, even if the lecture he is going over is a tad on the boring side. He was very knowledgeable and knew what he was teaching. He was always willing to help or answer questions on a particular assignment and he was always putting his students first. Overall, he is a wonderful professor who I would highly recommend to everyone!!
572862	I definitely appreciate his enthusiasm to engage his class at all times.

Question: Please provide specific comments about the course here.
Student	Detail
544844	Really boring class. I found it extremely hard to stay awake every class.
548730	This course was by far my favorite that I have taken at DePaul so far. I came into the class uninterested in the topic and honestly took it because i didn't get into the other religion credit I wanted, but I am so happy that I was placed in this one.
548795	The course was very interesting and I really enjoyed learning more about christianity and different branches etc.
561063	Dr. Myatt had powerpoint lectures that he supplemented with outside examples. It made for a very interesting religion class that was relatable. I've taken other religious courses and they sometime force their views on you and expect you to a vast amount of knowledge on the subject - Dr. Myatt was the exact opposite and made sure everyone understood the material regardless of their background.
561213	It was a required class.
561485	This was an interesting course only because of the professor. I had to take this course and knew that this was going to be a boring topic (for me specifically), but Dr. Myatt made class and its information enjoyable. He was always on time, and uplifting through out class. He understood that most of us had to take this course, and made it as enjoyable as possible. He was also very timely in responding to questions or concerns outside of class, and always happy to do so. He is now one of my favorite professors!
561664	The class was really fun and I learned a lot about the subject. Through the reading and lectures, I was introduced to new topics and also strengthened my knowledge of topics I had already heard of.
565793	Great course, very laid back and very interesting topics
566782	Personally, I originally signed up for a Religion 110: Catholic studies, which soon turned into "the christian experience", I now realize there is an emphasis on "experience", and not so much an emphasis on a historical aspect. Up until just after midterms, I really didn't understand the point of the class. It wasn't a history class on Christianity, yet it wasn't quite a philosophy class or theology class so it was caught in an awkward in between, leaving me to question what the point of the class was.

It made for a very interesting religion class that was relatable. I've taken other religious courses and they sometime force their views on you and expect you to a vast amount of knowledge on the subject - Dr. Myatt was the exact opposite and made sure everyone understood the material regardless of their background.

It was challenging at times in regards to other peoples opinion on certain topics not matching up with mine, but it felt good to be challenged!
